

We told the story of the jelly mould as part of our wartime Christmas drama. We had lots of fun acting out the story. We used the freeze frame technique and took photographs of each other using the ipad.

